

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 7:30 p.m. -- INDOOR FIELD TRIP at Div. of Audio-Visual Educ., 4466 Olive. Come one, come all! Lots to see... Lots to do... Lots to hear. Or quietly browse. Elizabeth Golterman and Marvin Beckmann made this evening such a rewarding one last year that Club members prevailed upon them to schedule a repeat performance this season. Mounted specimens--movies--exhibits--slides--bird song recordings--photographic studies, the L. R. Ernst nature library and some interesting innovations. Nowhere else in St. Louis is there such a splendid collection of nature material. This will be an informal get-together and we hope for a large turn out.

WILDLIFE PHOTOGRAPHY CONTEST - If you are an amateur photographer be sure to enter this contest. Prizes: $25, $15, $10, made possible by the generosity of one of our members. Black and white or color photographs. For further details contact Photography Contest Chairman, Mrs. Waldemar Palm, KI 3235.

WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY BIRD STUDY COURSE for beginners or non-beginners. Starts March 4. Week end field trips plus evening classes. J. Marshall Magner, Educational Chairman, instructor. Cost is lower than last semester. To avoid being left out be sure to register NOW. Contact University College, Washington University, PA 4700.

O-NON-DA-GA CAVERNS -- HALF PRICE FOR AUDUBON MEMBERS -- during February and March. Just present your membership card. One of nature's great wonders. And so easy to get to. Fine birding territory. 800 acre sanctuary reservation. Why not make up a party? Fine overnight accommodations at Cuba, Mo.

JONES CHECK LIST. Birds of the St. Louis region with normal arrival and departure dates. New edition, revised. Mail 25¢ to our Supply Chairman, Miss Anne Bayha, 5742 Page, St. Louis 12, Mo.

AMERICAN YOUTH HOSTELS -- AVAILABLE TO AUDUBON MEMBERS -- St. Louis Audubon Society has taken out a group membership for 1948. Combine birding and hosteling... This is a new service for our members. Several interesting locations Get out-of-doors! Make arrangements through our Hostel Chairman, Mrs. Trudy Wood, WEBster 2858-J.

COMMITTEE MEMBERS -- VOLUNTEERS WANTED FOR CERTAIN COMMITTEES -- C'mon, let's have some help. Perhaps you could assist in preparations for a children's radio program now being planned for this spring. Phone Mrs. Inez Schick, REpublic 7632, Chairman of the Radio Program Committee. Boy Scout Merit Badge Show Chairman, Bert Doering would like a couple of men helpers. Phone LOCKhart 0822. Also we would like several volunteers for the Flower Show Booth in March. It's lots of fun. And wonderful public relations for the Audubon Society. Phone Mrs. George Klinkerfuss, VICTOR 7-1261 or Mrs. Percy Coleman, ORange 7156 -- who are co-chairmen for the Flower Show, along with John C. McGuire.

FEBRUARY 23, MONDAY, AUDUBON SCREEN TOUR - TRAVELING ALONG THE LABRADOR by DR. ALFRED M. BAILEY -- THIRD BAPTIST CHURCH -- 8:15 P.M. Introduce one of your friends to these interesting programs... Just send a post card to Syd Heckler Executive Secretary, 1207 North 7th St. and ask for special pass.